POLICY FOR DISABLED PERSON (DIVYANGJAN)

PREAMBLE

The Rights of Persons with Disabilities Act, 2016, specifically refers to ease of access for the differently abled to the public or private buildings, workplaces, commercial activities, public utilities, religious, cultural, leisure or recreational activities, medical or health services etc. The government is also committed towards socio-economic transformation of differently abled, by adopting the global best practices. The right to education focusses on the need to have inclusive education, where students with learning difficulties and identified disabilities fulfil their educational needs through disability friendly support system and equal opportunities provided at the educational institutes. Various guidelines expect the academic institutes across the country to provide disabled friendly arrangements in the campus for the mobility and independent functioning of differently abled. Shri Lal Bahadur Shastri Degree College, Gonda provides barrier-free environment where people with disabilities can move about safely and freely and use the facilities within the built environment. The environment supports the independent functioning of individuals so that they can participate without assistance in everyday activities within the campus.
