

Report on World Book Day Celebration

Date: April 23, 2022

Venue: Department of B.Ed., Shri Lal Bahadur Shastri Degree College, Gonda

Coordinator: Dr. Chaman Kaur

Organized by: Shri Lal Bahadur Shastri Degree College, Gonda

Objective of the Program:

The World Book Day celebration aimed to promote reading habits among students and highlight the significance of books in education and personal growth. The event also sought to foster an appreciation for literature and encourage students to explore diverse genres of writing.

Program Details:

The event commenced with a formal inauguration by Dr. Chaman Kaur, the coordinator of the program. In her opening address, she spoke about the importance of books in shaping minds, expanding knowledge, and building critical thinking. She emphasized that books are not only a source of information but also provide a window into diverse cultures, ideas, and perspectives.

As part of the celebration, a Book Exhibition was organized in the B.Ed. department. The exhibition showcased a wide range of books, from academic texts to fiction, biographies, and self-help literature. Students and faculty members explored the collection, discussing the relevance of various works to their academic and personal lives.

In addition to the exhibition, a Speech Competition was held, where students were invited to present their thoughts on topics related to the importance of books and reading in the digital age. Participants passionately articulated their views on how books serve as companions, guides, and lifelong learning tools.

The speeches covered various themes, including the impact of literature on society, the role of books in preserving cultural heritage, and the transformative power of reading. Students highlighted notable works of literature and shared personal experiences that illustrated how reading had shaped their perspectives and lives.

In the Speech Competition, the winners were:

- First Place: Siddharth
- Second Place: Shreya
- Third Place: Shivani Malviya

Conclusion:

The World Book Day celebration concluded with a vote of thanks from Dr. Chaman Kaur, who expressed her appreciation for the students' enthusiasm and participation. She encouraged everyone to make reading a regular habit, stating that books have the potential to open new avenues of knowledge and creativity.

The event successfully achieved its goal of promoting the love of reading and emphasizing the critical role books play in education.

Glimpse of the Event:

Participants:

- Atul Pandey, Avinash Kumar Pandey, Garima Kasoudhan, Gaurav Kumar Chaudhary, Gauri Shankar, Himanshu, Iftikhar Ahmad, Shivani Malviya, Km Sanju Verma, Krishna Chandra Sahu, Mahaveer Prasad, Mahesh Tiwari, Manish Pandey, Manjesh, Menu Pandey, Mohd Salim, Mukesh, Mukesh Verma, Siddharth, Narendra Maurya, Nikhil Patel, Shreya, Omkar Shukla, Onkar Mishra, Pranjal Chaturvedi, Prem Sagar, Priyanka Pandey, Pushpendra Kasoudhan, Rahul Patel, Rajan Prajapati, Rajneesh Kumar, Ram Krishna Nandan, Ram Naresh Gupta, Ravi Prajapati.

Students from the B.Ed. department actively participated in the speech competition and the book exhibition. Faculty members, including Dr. Chaman Kaur, served as judges for the competition and provided insightful feedback on the students' presentations.

Prof. Ravindra Kumar
Principal

Dr. Chaman Kaur
Coordinator

