No. of Participants: 45

Objective:

To commemorate 75 years of India's independence and to inspire patriotism among students and staff by celebrating the spirit of freedom, unity, and cultural heritage.

The celebration of Azadi Ka Amrit Mahotsav at Shri Lal Bahadur Shastri Degree College, Gonda, took place on 12th March. The event aimed to honor India's freedom struggle and emphasize the importance of preserving and promoting national values.

Program

Details:

The program commenced with an inspiring speech by the Principal, who highlighted the contributions of freedom fighters and the ongoing responsibility of the youth in nation-building. He encouraged the students to take pride in their heritage and work towards a progressive and self-reliant India.

A Rangoli competition followed the formal proceedings. Participants from various departments created colorful rangoli designs that reflected the essence of freedom, unity, and cultural diversity. Their artistic expressions were judged based on creativity, symbolism, and presentation.

- 1st Position: Rini and Abhishek
- 2nd Position: Alka and Saumya
- 3rd Position: Vandana and Shivani

Following the Rangoli competition, a Fancy Dress program (Theme Traditional Dress) was held where students dressed as notable freedom fighters and national leaders. Each participant portrayed their chosen historical figure with dedication and passion, creating an engaging atmosphere. Winners for Fancy Dress were as follows:

- 1st Position: Sakshi Singh
- 2nd Position: Vandana

- 3rd Position: Akirti Dubey

Conclusion:

The event concluded with the distribution of prizes to the winners of both the Rangoli competition and Fancy Dress program. Rini and Abhishek's outstanding creativity secured them the 1st position, while Alka and Saumya achieved 2nd place, and Vandana and Shivani took 3rd place in the Rangoli competition and Sakshi, Vandana and Akriti secured 1st, 2nd and 3rd positions in Fancy Dress Competition presenting the states gracefully.

This celebration was a tribute to the sacrifices made by India's freedom fighters and an opportunity for the college community to express their patriotic spirit. It successfully instilled a sense of pride and unity among the students, motivating them to contribute to the nation's future.
