Organized by Shri Lal Bahadur Shastri Degree College, Gonda

Date: 26th November 2021

Program Presided by: Prof. Ravindra Kumar Pandey

On the occasion of Constitution Day (26th November 2021), Shri Lal Bahadur Shastri Degree College, Gonda, organized a significant program to honour the Indian Constitution. The event included an Installation Puja of the book of the Indian Constitution and a rally to spread awareness about the importance of the Constitution in shaping India's democratic framework.

The program was organized under the leadership of the college's Principal Prof. Ravindra Kumar Pandey, Prof. Shailendra Nath Mishra, Prof. Sanjay Kumar Pandey and involved active participation from various faculty members and students. The event aimed to highlight the values enshrined in the Constitution and promote constitutional literacy among the students and local community.

Key Highlights of the Event:

1. Installation Puja: The event began with a ceremonial Installation Puja of the Indian Constitution. This ritual was conducted to pay respect to the Constitution, symbolizing the reverence for the fundamental principles of justice, liberty, equality, and fraternity that guide the nation.

Prof. Shailendra Nath Mishra, the principal of the college, presided over the ceremony, emphasizing the significance of the Constitution in India's legal and democratic framework.

2. Address by Faculty Members:

- Dr. Rekha Sharma delivered an inspiring speech on the importance of Constitutional values in everyday life. She stressed the role of the Constitution in safeguarding the rights of individuals and maintaining the unity and integrity of the country.
- Prof. Sanjay K. Pandey shared his insights on the role of youth in upholding and protecting Constitutional values. He encouraged the students to actively participate in democratic processes and stay informed about their rights and duties as citizens.

3. Constitutional Rally: Following the installation ceremony, a rally was organized to raise awareness about the Constitution among the local community. The students and faculty members, carrying banners and placards with slogans promoting constitutional literacy, marched through the streets of Gonda. The rally was aimed at informing the public about the importance of the Indian Constitution and its relevance in modern society.

4. Participation: The program saw enthusiastic participation from students, faculty members, and the local community. The students played a key role in organizing and managing the rally, ensuring that the message of constitutional awareness reached a wide audience.

Conclusion: The Installation Puja and Rally Program organized by Shri Lal Bahadur Shastri Degree College, Gonda on the occasion of Constitution Day was a resounding success. The event not only honoured the Indian Constitution but also promoted a sense of responsibility among the students and community members to uphold the values enshrined in it. The active involvement of Prof.

Shailendra Nath Mishra, Dr. Rekha Sharma, and Prof. Sanjay K. Pandey ensured the smooth execution of the program and the dissemination of its core message.

This event served as a reminder of the power of the Constitution in shaping India's present and future, encouraging everyone to become more responsible and informed citizens.
