On January 26, 2024, the Department of Political Science at Shri Lal Bahadur Shastri Degree College, Gonda, U.P., organized a workshop on "Challenges of Democracy in India." This event, held on Republic

Day, brought together notable speakers, including Dr. Radesh Kumar, Dr. Vishal Pratap Singh, and Dr. Shailesh Kumar, to discuss the pressing issues facing Indian democracy today.

Dr. Radesh Kumar commenced the session by highlighting the foundational principles of democracy in India and the significance of the Constitution in preserving democratic values. He spoke about the growing political challenges, such as electoral integrity and the increasing influence of money in politics. Dr. Vishal Pratap Singh elaborated on legal and institutional hurdles, touching on the judiciary's role in protecting democratic freedoms and the need for more robust checks and balances to prevent the erosion of civil liberties.

Dr. Shailesh Kumar focused on the socio-political dimensions, examining how social inequality, communalism, and misinformation pose significant threats to India's democratic fabric. He also discussed the importance of active citizenship in addressing these challenges.

The workshop sparked an engaging discussion among students and faculty, encouraging critical thought on how India can strengthen its democratic institutions. The event ended with a collective reflection on the need for continuous vigilance and reform to safeguard India's democracy.
